Free Booklet Offered Parents

The Lynchburg Area Association for Retarded Children announces publication by the National Association for Retarded Citizens of a free booklet for parents of mentally retarded infants and preschool children.

"Make the Most of Your Baby" was written by Mrs. June Mather of Wilton, Conn., from her own personal standpoint as the mother of two mentally retarded children. It also reflects her more than 20 years' experience in the mental retardation field.

Her theses is that children learn from play. "Make the Most of Your Baby" tells how parents can provide meaningful play experiences for their mentally retarded infant by being aware of the sequential nature of early childhood development. Mrs. Mather also stresses that time and patience are needed in working with the mentally retarded child.

The booklet was published as part of an ongoing public information-inquiries program, madepossible by an $83,534 grant from the Civitan Clubs of North America. The two-year grant calls for at least six such booklets to be published and for the answering of the hundreds of inquiries NARC gets each month from persons seeking information on some mental retardation.

Lawson Ford Softball Team Qualifies For Regionals

The Lawson Ford Softball Team played six games last Saturday and came in runner up in the District 12-inch Softball Tournament held in Lynchburg. The winner, Warren's Rest., and runner-up qualifies for the Regional Tournament to be played in Lynchburg in July. Warren's beat Lawson's both times to take the championship.

In the first game Lawson's beat Smith Plumbing 9-1, and then took it on the chin from Warren's with a 10-1 lost and go into the loser's bracket. They then shut out Meade 8-0 in game four and came from a 7-4 deficit to win 8-7 in the last inning over Hurt Minute Mart in game five to go into the championship game against Warren's, who had not lost any. Warren's won the championship game 10-7.

A few highlights game by game:

In the first game, a four run outbreak in the fourth inning gave Lawson's a 6-1 lead. Donnie Clements led the 15 hit attack with three hits and Ray Tweedy, Johnny Cash, Doug Mitchell and Eddie Gunter each had two hits and Mike Ogden had three RBI's.

The bats went cold in game two against Warren's as Lawson's got only eight and Alton Harris had two of them. Buddy Wilcox drove in the only run.

In game three against Meade, Les Irvin pitched a three hitter, as only five men reached base and only one runner got to third and one to second. Mike Mallow, Pete Lampman, Donnie Clements and Charles amerson each had two hits in the 11 hit, 8-0 win.

The fifth game was close as it went to the wire. Lawson's led 5-0 and Columbia Mortage came back to tie it in the fourth. Lawson's broke the tie in the sixth with one run and added another in the seventh for a 7-5 lead. Columbia Mortage got one in thew seventh and left the typing run on base. Mike Mallow had three hits and Alton Harris two to lead the attack for Lawson's.

In an exciting fifth game against Hart Minute Market it was scoreless ball for the first three innings. Hurt led 7-4 at the end of six and loaded the bases in the seventh but could not score. Lawson's then rallied for four in the bottom of the seventh as only five men batted. Charles Jamerson started it with a single and Billy Thompson went in as a runner. Mike Ogden pinchhitted for Les Irvin and singled to put men on first and second. That's what Guy Friddell, author of "The Virginia Way," concludes in his remarkably beautiful book about Virginia and its people. He writes about Southside's tobacco market, the events and leaders who shaped the area's history, and what this unique part of the State is like today.
